

A look back on LOLA's favorites from 2024

FAVORITE CLIP: SNAKES DAY

One of our most popular clips of 2024 was a unique celebration of Snake Day.

Did you know that in India, some families believe that allowing children to interact with snakes can bring good luck or protection? This is based on the idea that the divine qualities of the snake will bless the child and ensure they grow up to be strong and fearless.

You can see just that in this clip of a child confidently interacting with the most fascinating and misunderstood creatures on our planet.

FAVOURITE LOCATION: CASABLANCA

LOLA jumped in to lend a hand when the film Lonely Planet was short on airport shots.

We filmed in Morocco between Marrakesh and Casablanca, which was one of our favourite experiences on location to date. Just head over to lolaclips.com and search Casablanca to see the footage!

FAVOURITE FESTIVAL: SUNNY SIDE OF THE DOC

We loved our trip to La Rochelle, where we attended the brilliant Sunny Side of the Doc.

The festival's 35th anniversary was dedicated to the future of our ecosystem and the future of the documentary genre itself. Everyone involved in putting together such an informative - not to mention enjoyable - event!

PROUDEST MOMENT: THE NEW LOLA WEBSITE

After a year of reimagining, redesigning and rebuilding, we are excited to announce the launch of our newly revamped website.

With a fresh design, faster browser speeds and enhanced functionality, the new LOLA Clips website aims to provide users with an intuitive, seamless experience and easy access to its vast library of curated video content, sourced from prestigious partners. See for yourself at lolaclips.com

What's in store for LOLA Clips in 2025? Most significantly, we'll be celebrating our 10th anniversary - you can expect plenty of new footage as always, plus a year round retrospective on our favourite clips and moments from the past decade. As for our resolutions, Dom is set on filming in Hawaii, and Sandra is aiming to finally throw a boat party for LOLA - hope to see you there when it happens!

GET IN TOUCH AT

lolaclips.com
info@lolaclips.com